If no, you must develop a SWPPP prior to starting construction activity.

VII. Discharge/Receiving Water Information

Discharge: Indicate whether your site's stormwater and/or dewatering water could enter surface waters, either directly and/or indirectly:

- Directly into a surface water body (bodies)? Water body means wetlands, named and unnamed creeks, streams, rivers, ponds, lakes, estuaries, and salt waters and all other surface waters and water courses
- Indirectly into a surface water body (bodies)? (for example, a discharge to a storm drain system, ditch, and/or pipe that may ultimately flow to a water body.)
If the discharge is to a storm sewer system, the name of the operator of the storm sewer system (e.g., City of Tacoma): _____
- To ground with 100% infiltration, with no potential to reach surface waters under any condition?

Provide locations on the next page or on a separate sheet, if necessary.

NOTE: If your stormwater discharges to a storm sewer system operated by the City of Seattle, King County, Snohomish County, City of Tacoma, Pierce County, or Clark County, you must also submit a copy of this NOI to the appropriate jurisdiction.

Does your project include dewatering? Yes No

You must include dewatering plans and discharge locations in your site Stormwater Pollution Prevention Plan.

Location of Discharge into Surface Water Body

Enter the water body name and latitude/longitude* of the point(s) where the site has the potential to discharge into a water body (enter all locations).

- Include the names and locations of both direct and/or indirect discharges to surface water bodies; even if the risk of discharge is low or limited to periods of extreme weather.
- Water body means wetlands, named and unnamed creeks, streams, rivers, ponds, lakes, estuaries, and salt waters and all other surface waters and water courses.
- Some large construction projects (for example, subdivisions, roads, or pipelines) may discharge into several water bodies.
- If the creek or tributary is unnamed, use a format such as "unnamed tributary to Bull Run Creek."
- Attach a separate list if necessary.
